

Breed Standard:

HEAD: face broad and dished, a short to medium snout and teeth suitable for grazing: 10 points

EARS: erect or flopped, inclined forward: 5 points

WATTLES: two, well formed and well attached: 10 points

NECK: short to medium, jowl light to medium: 5 points

BODY: shoulders level and in proportion, chest moderately wide between the legs, and well rounded hams: 10 points

BACK: strong, level or slightly arched: 10 points

TAIL: a natural tail, set high: 5 points

LEGS: straight, well set, able to support the size. Pasterns strong and resilient. The ability to walk well with a good straight action.: 10 points

FEET: strong, closed, and even: 10 Points

SKIN/HAIR: Healthy, coat color matching one of the recognized colors on the AKKPS color chart: 5 points

SEXUAL CHARACTERISTICS: Female; a sow should have at least 10 evenly spaced teats Male; a boar should exhibit masculine characteristics and 10 evenly spaced teats: 10 points

TEMPERAMENT: friendly, calm, placid natured: 10 points

TOTAL: 100 points

The American KuneKune
Pig Society

AKKPS is run on a non-profit basis to further the interest of pigs, the pedigree and lineage of the breed, and those who love to keep them.

AKKPS promotes the KuneKunes as a multi-purpose pig.

AKKPS is a member driven organization that is run by the members and for the member.

Join us in promoting this rare, heritage breed of grazing pigs at

www.AKKPS.com

